P.S. will you write a letter to the Albany Convention & send from Boston, as soon as Saturday a.m. Any address,

Care Lydia Mott
Albany N.Y.

I have just this moment learned that the Hall at Hudson is disengaged without charge & notice contradicted in the morning Papers. A. M. P.

you to our home, but with the disappointment, we are all glad that you do not hazard your health & continued usefulness, by unwise effort and labor, in your present condition of health,

The Hudson & Poughkeepsie conventions are deferred indefinitely, though both were fully and thoroughly advertised.

The Convention at Albany we shall go through with as best we can,

Without time for another word, I am, as ever, Yours

Aaron M. Powell,

Ghent, N.Y. March 4. 1838.

Dear Mr. Garrison:

I received your letter of March 1, yesterday morning. I need not, if I could, express to you all my regret that you are unable to be with us.

The several occasions seemed likely to be fully ripe for your labors, - especially at Hudson and Poughkeepsie, where you have never been. I regret for giving an important impetus to the cause that a golden opportunity will thus have to pass unimproved, it would too, have been indeed a delight to us to have welcomed
